

Professional development created with you in mind

Whether you're looking for individual training, small group training, or perhaps training across your district, identifying and selecting the best delivery method for your team doesn't have to be overwhelming! Pearson has an extensive library of comprehensive training offerings that are designed to ensure you're using each assessment and measure with fidelity.

Review our expertly crafted training options, created with you in mind!

Complimentary training

Whether you've purchased an assessment or need additional information to help make your purchase decision, we offer complimentary training to help guide you!

Webinars: Visit pearsonassessments.com/webinars to view our calendar of upcoming sessions and access the recording archives. You can also access the recordings at PearsonAssessments.com-YouTube.

Introductory, on-demand training is available for many of our new releases. To access the training, look for the Complimentary Training tab at the applicable assessment web page at PearsonAssessments.com.

On-demand training

Does your caseload have you absolutely swamped? Are you finding it extremely difficult to set aside a training day that works for your entire staff? On-demand training that can be completed at the pace that works best for your schedule may be the best option.

View options >

Benefits of on-demand training:

- Individual license for one year
- Self-paced learning
- Available 24/7
- CE available for select products
- Growing library of on-demand offerings
- Affordable price point

Live group and individual training webinars

Feel more comfortable learning “live” from a Pearson expert? Our training team can schedule a live webinar so participants can learn from the comfort of their home or office.

Whether you’re training a large group or just a few individuals, we have a solution that fits. Our live webinars are tailored for both private groups and individual participants, providing flexibility and expert guidance to meet your training needs.

View options >

Benefits of live webinars:

- Flexible and easy to access
- Allows for remote participation
- Real-time demonstrations
- Presented by a certified Pearson Trainer

Group

- Private groups up to 40
- CE available for additional fee
- Date chosen by customer

Individual

- Purchase only the seats needed (up to 40)
- Network with clinicians and educators from across the country
- CE included for select products
- Attend on pre-advertised dates

In-person training

Do you feel that your team learns better face-to-face? Pearson offers in-person training sessions for several of our assessments that are perfect for professional development, in-service days, or district-wide implementations*.

View options >

Recommended for district- or school-wide adoptions such as aimswebPlus™*

Benefits of in-person training:

- Hands-on learning
- Certified Pearson trainer
- Affordable price per person
- Opportunities for differentiated learning
- Reduced day-to-day distractions
- CE available for additional fee

Still not sure which training option is right for you?

Contact your assessment consultant, call +1 (800) 627-7271, or complete this form and our dedicated representatives will help you identify the training that aligns with your needs.

